Photo Release

Throughout the Sunday School year, we may take photographs and/or videos of Sunday School participants learning, playing, singing, and having a great time. Photographs may be used throughout the year as part of our Sunday School programming and may be used in our church-related publications including but not limited to bulletin boards within the church building, on our congregation's website, our weekly and monthly newsletters, and other printed media promoting St. Paul's ministry and/or programs. St. Paul's will not post names as captions with photos (except of church staff and/or volunteers, with their consent) and will gladly remove any photo of your child from display upon your request. I hereby authorize St. Paul's and its representatives to photograph and/or video record my child (named above), and to publish these images for the purposes outlined in this release.
